SONGS FOR THE PEOPLE-No. 12. Air-I dream't that I dwelt in marble halls.

I dream't that I dwelt in marble halls.

It has been and tan out my face.

And I that at paries, at some and balls.

I was termed a repuisive disgrace.

I had riches enough, but, also could not count.

On possessing a spittless skin.

Bar I thought that a whisper said, you may surmount.

These defects, be they build as sin.

These defects, be they hateful as sin.

I thought that suitors now sought my hand,
But they all repudiated my face.
For they cired though her features are formed mild and thend.
The pumples all beauty discrete.
Toes I thought that I cred in a voice void of hope.
Cire these freckles, make my skin white and fair,
And a voice cried use a case of the fam d Jones Soap.
And your mind will be free from despare.

And your mind will be free from despair.

Then I desam't that I used it: O' that moment of bliss, My skin changed from itay ellowish bue;
My usek was made clear; and my face made to kiss.
Though an angl impet claim it his due.
Though she a missed the freckles; the tan
Hid decomp'd, and a voice by my side.
Said indeed you are now made the clory of man;
Ay, the virtue, the hope and the pride.

Ay, the virtue, the hope and the pride.

The great virtue of genuine Jores, Som consists in its emolline and beautifying qualities. The Medical Society of Paris termed it a miracle, a plessing, and a wonder, to cure any employ or disfigurement of or for cleaning drift, yellow or discolored skin, rendering it soft, white, clear and spottest, at the same time removing freekles, pumples, tan jumbern, mer these and unfallfully curing sait theum, and any other requires of the skin, porticularly in observed.
